TO PASS THE SENATE BILL.

House Democrats Vote in Caucus to Have Their Conferrees Recede.

CRISP OFFERS THE RESOLUTION.

Separate Bills Then to Be Passed Providing for Free Sugar, Iron Ore and Coal.

HOUSE ACTION MEANT FOR TO-DAY.

But the Absence of Outhwaite, of the Rules Committee, May Put It Off Till To-Morrow.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Immediately after the House Democratic caucus, which decreed this morning a recess of the House conferees on the tariff and an agreement with the Senate bill, the House conferees went into session in the room of the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Breckinridge, of Arkansas, who had been advising with the conferees, said that another meeting with the Senate conferees would not be necessary and that the House conferees could bring in a report receding from the disagreement to the Senate amendments and concurring in them, which would pass the bill.

It was the intention of the Democratic managers of the House to finish up everything to-day by having the Committee on Rules present a special order to carry out the mandate of the caucus. The intention was to pass the Tariff bill, and then follow with the other bills named in the caucus resolution.

These bills have all been prepared, and though they were not reported from the Ways and Means Committee, or in any regular order, these preliminaries could be dispensed with under a special order from the Committee on Rules.

It was found that Representative Outhwaite was at Cresson Springs. He was telegraphed for by his colleagues, but it was said that he could not reach Washington before 5 o'clock this afternoon.

The two Republican members of the Rules Committee, Messrs. Reed and Burrows, were called in at 12.30. It was thought possible that they will waive the absence of Mr. Outhwaite and consider him paired on all questions coming before the Committee.

This, however, it was said they would not do unless they could secure reasonable time for debate.

The absence of Mr. Outhwaite will probably postpone a decisive vote on any of the propositions until to-morrow.

PROCEEDINGS IN CAUCUS.

Mr. Wilson Says the Sugar Trust Has the People by the Throat.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—An hour before 10 o'clock this morning, the time set for the House Democratic caucus, members began to arrive at the Capitol, and hasty consultations were held on the course to be pursued. Speaker Crisp joined in his private office by Chairman Wilson and Representatives Turner, McMillin and Montgomery, making the full membership of the House Democratic conference committee.

Representative Breckinridge, of Arkansas, an advisory member of the conference, was also present. It was final consultation on the line of action to be presented by the House leaders to the caucus. The meeting lasted until it was time for the caucus to convene.

At the meantime there was a scene of animation on the floor of the House. Representatives Tracy, Straus, Warner and others passed among their associates and stiffened up the sentiment of loyalty to the conferees. It was apparently uphill work, however, as the current of feeling among the rank and file of members seemed to be setting strongly in favor of accepting the Senate bill without further delay.

At 10 o'clock Speaker Crisp and all the conferees filed out of the Speaker's office and took seats in a body in the front part of the Democratic side. There was an ominous silence as they arrived. At that time 133 Democratic members were on the floor. As Mr. Wilson passed through the corridor to the House he was asked as to the result of the conference in the Speaker's room, but answered, "I cannot make it known yet."

Chairman Wilson took the floor immediately after the roll-call and began a statement of the situation. He spoke calmly and dispassionately, and received the closest attention. Members left their seats and crowded eagerly about him. It is seldom that such interest is shown in a caucus.

Mr. Wilson began with a recital of the difficulties that have been encountered. He went over each stage of the situation with much detail. He said that each step had been pursued with an ardent desire to support with honor the desires of the House of Representatives and to resist what was regarded as the unreasonable demands of the Senate conferees.

Mr. Wilson took up the contested schedules, particularly sugar, coal and iron ore, and reviewed the differences in conference on these main items. He took up each proposition on sugar and spoke of the vast profits to the Sugar Trust which would result from many of these propositions. He did not indulge in the sharp criticism that was expected on the motives of the Senate conferees.

Mr. Wilson spoke of the fight made by the House conferees for a specific duty on sugar, on the ground that under an ad valorem system it would be impossible to tell on account of the invoice methods, the exact advantage which would accrue to the Sugar Trust.

Sugar Trust's Coming Profits. He made the remarkable statement that he had been credibly informed and believed that the Sugar Trust had anticipated the enactment of the Senate sugar schedule, purchased $12,000,000 worth of raw sugar. If this were true, he said, the profits accruing to the Trust from this investment in advance of the enactment of the Senate schedule would be at least $40,000,000.

Mr. Wilson also pointed out at length the embarrassment attending the efforts to adjust the coal and iron schedules. "The great battle," said Mr. Wilson, "is between the American people and the Sugar Trust. It is a battle in which the Trust has taken to people by the throat, and it will never end until we throw off the grip."

Senate Conferrees Coerced. There was enthusiastic applause at this. Mr. Wilson proceeded to state that the House conferees had been willing to concede almost everything.

Mrs. White's Boarder Steals Mr. White's Affections.

Not as Pretty as the Deserted Wife, but Is a Grass Widow.

Elopers Believed to Be in the Quaker City.

A woman boarder has made sad havoc with the Henry O. White household, at 218 Cherry street. She has gone away with White, and the latter's wife is pining away in solitude.

White was a notary public at that place and, incidentally, studied medicine with the view of being a doctor. His wife, a nice, trim, neat little person of about twenty-seven years, was busy nearly all the time giving piano lessons, sewing, and in other ways helping support the home.

Some time ago Mrs. Sossie Bosauk, a glass widow, whose husband lives in Russia, went to board with Mr. and Mrs. White. Now, Mrs. Bosauk, if the exact photographs of her do not do her an injustice, is far from being a competitor of Mrs. White in the matter of good looks. Mrs. White thought she had reason to feel jealous, and soon after the new boarder's advent she asked her husband whether he still loved her. He replied with many kisses that nothing could ever shake his constancy, and that above all, Sossie was as remote from his heart as the polar star from the equator.

Sossie, as they familiarly called the woman, was also delicately questioned by the anxious wife, but was so earnest in her denial that Mrs. White ceased to doubt and confided more than ever in her husband.

About a month ago White told his wife that he had decided to take him to Philadelphia. He had found that the two terms he had spent at the New York University Medical College were too expensive, and so he concluded to pass the final term in the cheaper college at Philadelphia. This seemed plausible enough, and the studious husband left for the Quaker City.

A week passed, and Sossie one day failed to arrive for dinner. In fact, several days and several dinners went unheeded by Sossie's presence. At last Mrs. White became suspicious. Her husband's letters, which she had been reading, told her that he was in Philadelphia, and she became more and more suspicious. The letter, which was in Russian, wound up as follows: "Now at last I have attained my ideal. Sossie is with me. She is the pinnacle of what my heart has ever striven after. To be honest from her is death. In her presence I live and breathe and find all my happiness. You will never again see your Harry."

Penitence and broken in spirit Mrs. White now lived and a few days later the few piano pupils she had had times, and the only way she was able to support herself is by playing in a dancing school on East Broadway, for which she gets $1 a week.

MRS. MURPHY WON.

The East Side Fighter Knocked Out by His Wife in One Round.

Jerry Murphy, a light-weight fighter of the east side, was knocked out last night in one round. To-day he is confined to his room at 15 Stanton street, his head bandaged in places that cover two long scalp wounds.

Mrs. Murphy is responsible for the fighter's condition, but Jerry says it was a foul blow that felled him and was delivered by an assailant named Burns. At 10 o'clock last night the tenants in the Murphy house were aroused by the cries of Jerry Murphy as he ran out into the hall with blood streaming down his face. Burns, who was a stranger, had got his injuries or was going to a hospital.

At midnight Mrs. Murphy called the Eldridge street police station and had the injured man taken to a hospital. Mrs. Murphy claimed that she had been with her husband when he was knocked out, and that she had seen Burns strike him.

Murphy for many years with James Kelly did a turn on the variety stage.

CHURCH SAFE BLOWN OPEN.

Located in a Minneapolis Parsonage, but Burglars Got Nothing.

(By Associated Press.)

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 12.—While the congregation of St. Elizabeth's Church was worshipping last night at Fifteenth avenue and Eighth street, the safe in the parsonage, two doors away, was blown open by burglars. The burglars secured nothing for their trouble, the pastor of the church being in Europe and the church collections being kept elsewhere during his absence.

THIS WEATHER'S ALL RIGHT.

No Heat Nor Uncomfortably Warm Weather in Sight.

There is no hot, or even uncomfortably warm weather in sight, according to Acting Local Forecast Official H. C. Howe.

"In fact," said the man of sunshine and showers this morning, "there is nothing in our forecasts that should not satisfy the most exacting. We may have a few light showers this afternoon and to-night, and it may grow a trifle warmer to-morrow, but nothing to speak of."

Observer Dunn is expected home in a few days. The contest in which he is engaged in Washington lasts but ten days, and he has been absent nearly that time already. Although the result will not be known for several days, yet private advice from Mr. Dunn says that he has been very fortunate in all his prognostications there.

Weather Forecast.

The weather forecast for the thirty-six hours ending at 3 P. M. to-morrow, is as follows: Fair, slightly warmer, except probably slight sprinkles of rain to-day; winds becoming westerly. The following record shows the changes in the temperatures during the morning hours, as indicated by the thermometer at Perry's pharmacy: 8 A. M., 64°; 9 A. M., 65°; 10 A. M., 66°; 11 A. M., 67°; 12 M., 68°.

CAPT. CROSS TO BE NEXT.

To Be Tried by the Police Commissioners Next Wednesday.

WITH HIS FORMER WARDMEN

Charges Are Similar to Those Against Capt. Devery and Ex-Capt. Doherty.

FIVE SERGEANTS TO-MORROW.

They Are Accused of Taking "Straw Ball" While Under Ex-Capt. Doherty's Command.

(By Associated Press.)

The next Police Captain to face his accusers and defend himself against charges of bribery and other corrupt acts will be Capt. Adam A. Cross, as "The Evening World" predicted last Friday.

In accordance with the schedule laid down by Francis L. Wellman, Supt. Byrnes was instructed by the Board of Police to prefer charges against Capt. Cross, and they were presented this afternoon.

The time for the trial of the five sergeants and two ward men who were accused of accepting "straw ball" from disorderly house keepers, while serving under Capt. Doherty in the Fourteenth Precinct, has been changed to to-morrow afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Col. George Bliss, in a letter to President Martin this morning, stated that he had been retained to defend Capt. Cross, and requested that the day of trial be fixed for no later than Aug. 22. He explained as his reason for asking for the delay that he was in ill-health and required a few days' rest before entering upon the trial.

The charges against Capt. Cross are four in number, and worded exactly like those on which Capt. Doherty was tried. He is charged: second, neglect of duty; third, conduct injurious to the public peace and welfare; fourth, conducting unbecomingly an officer of the police force.

The charges are accompanied by forty-six specifications. There are twenty-one counts in the charges against ex-Ward Men Burns and forty-two against ex-Ward Man Smith. From the specifications it may be inferred that Smith, who was a sergeant, was charged with having taken a bribe of $100 from a disorderly house keeper of the Eleventh Precinct, while Capt. Cross was in command. Capt. Cross was in command of the Eleventh Precinct, and Smith was a sergeant.

Along with Capt. Cross, his late ward men, who were charged with taking a bribe of $100 from a disorderly house keeper, are accused. Capt. Cross and his ward men were charged with taking a bribe of $100 from a disorderly house keeper, and with taking a bribe of $100 from a disorderly house keeper.

Adam A. Cross is a relative of Gov. Flower. He was graduated from the State Normal School at Albany, with honors, and studied law, graduating from the Albany Law School in 1878. He was admitted to the bar and entered the office of Birdseye, Lloyd & Baylis, 170 Broadway, this city.
